THE JOURNEY

in partnership with Heart to Honduras

MAY 20–27, 2017

“MEN ELECTED TO OUR MEMBERSHIP. . . GIVE PROMISE OF SERVICE TO THEIR FELLOW MEN, AND TO THE WORLD.”

PROGRAM DATES

May 20–27, 2017

COST

$1,600 which covers:

airfare, lodging, ground transportation, meals, building supplies, translators, an excursion to a tourist attraction in Honduras and insurance.

In addition, you will also be responsible for meals on travel days and for any spending money you wish to bring.

As FarmHouse men, we are called to render service both in our home communities, and to societies across the world. The Journey is an exciting opportunity for FarmHouse men to live our values and give back in the summer of 2017. Through a partnership with the Association of Fraternal Leadership and Values and Heart to Honduras, 15 or more FarmHouse men will travel to a village in Honduras for a week of service, learning and exploration of our shared values.

THE EXPERIENCE

In a small community outside of San Pedro Sula, Honduras, FarmHouse will be hosted by local mission organization Heart to Honduras (H2H) that has been working in Honduran communities since 1989. Participants will be able to work alongside and connect with local community members while on-site and through intentional community excursions. During the program, FarmHouse men will assist a local community in completing a project for a family in need. In just a few short days, we'll help develop lasting independence. Along the way, you'll learn about yourself, your community, your Fraternity and humanity. You'll also have a blast exploring a new culture with your brothers from around the nation.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Please do not let cost deter you from participating. Participants can secure funding through a variety of sources, and are eligible to apply for the FarmHouse Foundation's Linville International Catalyst Scholarship, which can provide up to $2,000 toward international educational experiences for FarmHouse men. The Fraternity is committed to finding a way for all interested FarmHouse men to participate in The Journey, regardless of finances.

THE JOURNEY

WHAT THE JOURNEY IS NOT

The Journey is NOT a vacation: If you are looking to explore the city, sight-see, or take part in an international FarmHouse social, this might not be the experience for you. Our time will be spent serving and connecting to the community, learning from each other, and exploring how to do things that matter. Related, you should expect basic accommodations, to clean-up after yourself, and to cook meals as a group.

The Journey is NOT a chapter training program: Intentionally we have not created space for sessions or conversations on topics like recruitment, new member education, or officer transition. This program is not intended to make you the best chapter officer, it is intended to challenge you to think about how you can use your FarmHouse experience to make the world a better place.

WHAT CAN THE JOURNEY BE?

CHALLENGING, INTROSPECTIVE, INSPIRATIONAL, ADVENTUROUS, EDUCATIONAL, IMPACTFUL, EYE-OPENING, AND INCREDIBLY FUN. . . AND IF YOU'RE ALL IN, IT CAN TRULY BE LIFE-CHANGING.
